

If your phone is part of a call pickup group and ANY phone number within that group rings, your phone will show an informational message on the display and you may hear a call pickup ring tone (if configured). Press the softkey (at the bottom of your phone display) labelled “PICKUP” once and the call will transfer to your phone.