CONSENT JUDGMENT

ORS 20.140 - State fees deferred at filing

Petitioners Columbia Riverkeeper, Northwest Environmental Defense Center (“NEDC”), and Mark Riskedahl (collectively, “Petitioners”); Respondents Oregon Department of Environmental Quality (“DEQ”), Oregon Environmental Quality Commission (“EQC”), and
Richard Whitman (collectively, “Respondents”); and intervenor Oregon Industrial Stormwater Group (“OISG”), wish to resolve this matter without further litigation and have agreed to entry of this Consent Judgment without admission or adjudication of any issue of fact or law. The Parties accordingly hereby agree and stipulate as follows:

1 A. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2 1. The agency action challenged by Petitioners is DEQ’s issuance of National
3 Pollutant Discharge Elimination System Permit No. 1200-Z, dated August 1, 2017. The 1200-Z
4 Permit is a final agency order in “other than contested cases” that is reviewable under ORS
5 183.484.

6 2. This Court has jurisdiction over, and is the appropriate venue for, this Petition for 7 Review pursuant to ORS 183.490 because all of the parties have their principal place of business
8 in or reside in Multnomah County, Oregon, and because the cause of suit, or some part thereof,
9 arose in Multnomah County, Oregon. See ORS 14.030; ORS 14.060.

10 3. The obligations set forth herein are consistent with, and in furtherance of, the 11 purposes of the federal Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. § 1251 et seq.) and the Oregon
12 Administrative Procedures Act (ORS § 183.310 et seq.).

13 B. DEFINITIONS

14 4. Whenever terms listed below are used in this Consent Judgment, the following
15 definitions apply:

- 16 a. “1200-Z Permit” means NPDES Permit No. 1200-Z.
- 17 b. “DEQ” means the Oregon Department of Environmental Quality.
- 18 c. “NPDES” means the National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System.

19 C. IMMEDIATE REVISIONS TO THE 1200-Z PERMIT

20 5. By October 31, 2018, DEQ will issue a final revised 1200-Z Permit in accordance 21 with ORS 183.484(4) that affirms or modifies the 1200-Z Permit issued on August 1, 2017.

22 D. FUTURE REVISIONS TO THE 1200-Z PERMIT

23 6. By October 30, 2020, DEQ will release for public review and comment a revised
24 draft 1200-Z Permit.

25 7. By March 30, 2021, DEQ will issue a final Revised 1200-Z Permit along with 26 written responses to public comments received on the draft Revised 1200-Z Permit.

E. RELEASE BY PETITIONERS AND RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

8. Upon entry, this Consent Judgment shall constitute a complete and final settlement of Petitioners' Claim for Relief, subject to the express reservations of rights in paragraphs 10 and 11 herein.

9. Subject to paragraphs 10 and 11 herein, Petitioners and Intervenor hereby forever release, discharge, and covenant not to assert against DEQ (by way of the commencement of an action, the joinder of DEQ in an existing action, or in any other fashion) any and all claims, causes of action, suits or demands of any kind whatsoever in law or in equity, that Petitioners or Intervenor may have had, or may now or hereafter have, against DEQ based upon DEQ's issuance of General NPDES Permit No. 1200-Z, dated August 1, 2017.

10. Nothing in this Consent Judgment shall limit Petitioners' or Intervenor's rights to assert any claim for relief, and make any legal or factual assertions necessary to support a claim, in the event that the Parties are before the Court pursuant to section I ("Dispute Resolution") or section J ("Modifications").

11. Nothing in this Consent Judgment shall be deemed to waive or limit Petitioners' or Intervenor's right to challenge in a separate administrative or judicial action the merits of any separate agency action taken by DEQ, including but not limited to:

- a. Any affirmation or modification of the 1200-Z Permit pursuant to paragraph 5 of this Consent Judgment;
- b. The Revised 1200-Z Permit pursuant to paragraph 7 of this Consent Judgment; or
- c. Any future issuance, reissuance, or modification of the 1200-Z Permit.

F. PAYMENT OF PETITIONERS' LITIGATION COSTS

12. In full and complete satisfaction of Petitioners' claim for an award of their reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to ORS § 183.497, Respondents agree to pay Petitioners jointly the total sum of $38,000, and Intervenor OISG agrees to contribute to this

1 amount by paying Petitioners jointly the total sum of $8,000. The obligation of Intervenor
2 OISG under this paragraph and paragraph 13 of this Consent Judgment shall be void and of no
3 effect if the affirmation or modification of the 1200-Z Permit pursuant to paragraph 5 of this
4 Consent Judgment is materially inconsistent with the revisions specified in Section A of the 5 Settlement Agreement dated August 15, 2018, among the Parties to this Consent Judgment.

6 13. Within one week of entry of the Consent Judgment, Petitioners will provide DEQ
7 and Intervenor OISG with the information necessary to electronically transfer these funds to 8 Petitioners' attorneys, Earthrise Law Center. This electronic transfer shall be made by 9 Respondents within 30 days of the entry of this Consent Judgment and by Intervenor OISG
10 within 10 days after DEQ's issuance of the revised 1200-Z Permit pursuant to paragraph 5 of this
11 Consent Judgment, subject to the qualification stated in paragraph 12 of this Consent Judgment.

12 G. FORCE MAJEURE

13 14. The Parties recognize that the obligations included in this Consent Judgment
14 could be delayed by an event of Force Majeure. Such situations include, but are not limited to, a 15 government shut-down or currently unforeseen catastrophic environmental events requiring 16 immediate and/or time-consuming response by DEQ. Should a delay occur due to such 17 circumstances, any resulting failure by DEQ to meet the timelines set forth in this Consent
18 Judgment shall not constitute a failure to comply with the terms of this Consent Judgment. If an 19 event of Force Majeure occurs, the Parties will meet and make a good faith effort to renegotiate
20 the timelines set forth in this Consent Judgment. If the Parties cannot reach agreement, the 21 dissatisfied party may invoke the Dispute Resolution procedure set forth in section I.

22 H. CONTINUING JURISDICTION

23 15. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over this matter and allow this action to be
24 reopened for the purpose of enabling the Parties to this Consent Judgment to apply to the Court
25 for any further order that may be necessary to construe, carry out, enforce compliance, or resolve
26 any dispute regarding the terms or conditions of this Consent Judgment, and for granting any

1 further relief as the interests of justice may require, except as provided in paragraph 17.

2 16. Nothing in the terms of this Consent Judgment shall be construed to confer upon
3 this Court jurisdiction to review any decision, either procedural or substantive, to be made by
4 DEQ pursuant to this Consent Judgment, except for the purpose of determining DEQ's
5 compliance with this Consent Judgment, and nothing in this Consent Judgment shall be deemed
6 to alter or affect the standards for judicial review of any final DEQ action.

7 I. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

8 17. Any allegation of an act or omission in breach of the Consent Judgment may be 9 raised by any party through the dispute resolution process in this Section.

10 18. In the event that the Parties cannot resolve on their own disputes regarding
11 provisions of this Consent Judgment, the Parties may request that the Court appoint a settlement
12 judge to work with the Parties to reach agreement. In the event that the Parties do not reach a
13 mutually acceptable solution, any Party may move the Court for relief. The non-moving Party
14 shall have the opportunity to respond to such motion, and any Party may seek oral argument
15 before the Court.

16 19. In the event of a disagreement between the Parties concerning the interpretation of 17 any provision of this Consent Judgment or performance thereof, the dissatisfied Party shall 18 provide the other Parties with written notice of the dispute and a request for negotiations. If the 19 Parties cannot resolve such disagreement within thirty days after receipt of the notice by the 20 dissatisfied Party, then any Party may move the Court to resolve the dispute. The non-moving
21 Parties shall have the opportunity to respond to such motion, and any Party may seek oral
22 argument before the Court.

23 20. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce the Consent Judgment, and may 24 impose such remedies as it determines are just, equitable, and authorized by law.

25 J. MODIFICATIONS

26 21. Any term set forth in this Consent Judgment may be modified only upon written

1 agreement of the Parties and approval of the Court.

2 22. If any Party seeks to modify the terms of this Consent Judgment, that Party shall
3 provide the other Parties with written notice of the proposed modifications and a request for 4 negotiations. The Parties agree to negotiate in good faith regarding any proposed modification of 5 the Consent Judgment. If the Parties agree to a proposed modification, the Parties shall jointly
6 notify the Court of the modification and request Court approval. If the Parties cannot reach 7 agreement regarding the proposed modification within thirty days after receipt of the notice of 8 the proposed modification by the notifying Party, then any Party may move the Court for such 9 modification. The non-moving Parties shall have the opportunity to respond to such motion, and 10 any Party may seek oral argument before the Court.

11 K. EFFECTIVE DATE

12 23. This Consent Judgment shall become effective upon the date of its entry by the 13 Court. If for any reason the Court does not enter this Consent Judgment, the obligations set forth
14 in this Consent Judgment are null and void.

15 L. TERMINATION OF CONSENT JUDGMENT AND DISMISSAL OF CLAIM

16 24. This Consent Judgment shall remain in full force and effect until DEQ has (1)
17 issued a final order affirming or modifying the 1200-Z Permit as specified in paragraph 5; (2)
18 issued a final Revised 1200-Z Permit as specified in paragraph 7; and (3) completed payment of 19 Petitioners' reasonable attorney's fees and costs pursuant to paragraph 12. Upon completion of 20 all of those actions, the Parties shall file a joint motion seeking termination of this Consent
21 Judgment and dismissal of the Petition with prejudice.
