- Attached is a SIGNED copy of your (and spouse, if married) 2023 income tax return(s) and applicable schedule(s) filed with the other relevant tax authority of a U.S. territory, a commonwealth, or a foreign government.
- Attached is a copy of your (and spouse, if married) 2023 transcript(s), obtained at no cost, from the relevant tax authority of a U.S. territory, a commonwealth, or a foreign government, that lists tax account information.

Once you receive the transcript - add the student's L&C ID number to each page, prior to submitting it to our office.

OR

2023 Student Non-Tax Filer

Students who are subject to the rules of a relevant tax authority other than the IRS, including but not limited to: The Republic of the Marshall Islands, The Republic of Palau, The Federated States of Micronesia, a U.S. territory, a commonwealth, or a foreign government, who did not and were not required to file a 2023 income tax return with that relevant tax authority must check the box below and provide the corresponding documentation.

- The student (and spouse, if married) did not, and is/were not required to, file a 2023 income tax return with the IRS or other relevant tax authority (e.g., the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Republic of Palau, the Federated States of Micronesia, a U.S. territory, a commonwealth, or a foreign government). The student must submit ALL of the following:

- 1) A signed and dated statement from the student certifying all of the following:
 - The name of the student (and spouse, if married), and
 - An affirmative statement to certify you (and spouse, if married) are not required to file a 2023 income tax return(s), and
 - Source(s) and amounts of all earnings, other income, and resources that supported you for the 2023 tax year, and
 - For individual(s) who do NOT have a Social Security Number (SSN), Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN), or Employer Identification Number (EIN) – make an affirmative statement to certify you do not have an SSN, ITIN, or EIN.

-- and --
- 2) A copy of IRS W-2 Form(s) or equivalent document(s) for each source of 2023 employment income you received.

-- and --
- 3) A copy of a Verification of Non-filing Letter dated on or after October 1, 2024 (for you and your spouse, if married) obtained at no cost from the other relevant tax authority.

Important Notes

If a foreign tax return/documents are in a language other than English and U.S. dollars – you must translate it yourself, and convert all monetary units to U.S. dollars before submitting it to our office. To convert all monetary units to U.S. dollars, use the published exchange rate in effect for the date nearest to when you complete the FAFSA form.

If you filed a joint tax return in 2023, and at the time of filing the FAFSA were separated/divorced, widowed, or married to someone not on the joint return, you must submit 2023 W-2 Forms or equivalent documents for all sources of employment income included on the tax return.
